Über die Messe

EXPOLUX is the main event of the market for professionals who, in their activities, need to have contact with trends and new technologies surrounding the lighting universe. These are architects, engineers, retailers, buyers from the construction industry, decorators, among others, who have the opportunity to see first hand what is new in the sector during this great event. A biennial event that updates the market, presenting products developed with state-of-the-art technology, in addition to being a great showcase for functionality and design.
