Über die Messe

Expo Riva Schuh is the leading international event dedicated to the business sector of volume footwear; the privileged meeting point between supply and demand of the most important world markets. An event with a high level of internationalization, that brings together in one single appointment companies and buyers from all over the world. Expo Riva Schuh is the exhibition that opens the international fair calendar; a real concrete business platform that provides the opportunity to gain an ideal observation point from which to discover previews of the collections, plan orders in advance for the season and get early feedback from the market. Expo Riva Schuh has always placed business first, reinforcing its role as a crossroads of European trade for the volume footwear sector.
