

Tank Storage Asia Storage Terminal Operations Conference and Exhibition

REGIONAL FAIR

Singapore, Singapore

GENERAL OVERVIEW

Opening hours

10am - 6pm, last day 10am - 5pm

About the expo

The two day conference and exhibition brings the South East Asian bulk liquid storage industry together at the luxurious Marina Bay Sands in Singapore to network, learn and do business. It is the only dedicated show in the region for international manufacturers & suppliers to showcase their expert products and services to buyers from Asia and beyond. Asia is expected to add an additional 45 million m³ of crude oil storage capacity between 2015 and 2017, and with the economy growing faster than the rest of the world, there couldn't be a better time to exhibit.
