About the expo

MRO Middle East, co-located with Aircraft Interiors Middle East (AIME), is the Gulf region's leading conference and trade show for commercial aircraft maintenance. This is the one opportunity you have in this region to discover the crucial issues impacting the MRO industry today and to engage colleagues, customers, peers, and competitors from all segments of the business. Network with the people that are fostering growth in the region, developing cutting-edge technology, and pushing the MRO industry forward. MRO Middle East's specific focus on commercial aircraft MRO ensures the buyers and solution providers you want to meet will be there. It is the perfect place to meet new contacts, expand business networks, discuss new trends and technological developments and to source products and services.
