About the expo

The building automation and electrical control market is robustly growing and is transforming the traditional industries with more energy efficient solutions. Electrical building technology India (EBTI) will showcase a wide range of smart, non-complex and cost effective energy management systems which will impact and influence your overall living and business efficiency. Messe Frankfurt is the organiser of industry's highly respected Light + Building fairs which are held in Frankfurt, Moscow, Buenos Aires, Shanghai, Guangzhou and Middle East. Messe Frankfurt is also the co-organiser of bi-annual 'Light India' which is the most trusted trade and networking platform for the Lighting Industry in India.
