HINTE Marketing & Media GmbH

HINTE Marketing & Media GmbH (HMM) as a crossmedia-agency ensures year-round communication on all channels in the trade show, event and convention industry. We apply relevant content in such a way that it best suits your needs and we make it available for you throughout your event. Video-production also forms a part of the HMM range of services. In collaboration with Studio B.60, a fully equipped HD TV-studio, professional videos are produced. From image to location films, tradeshow TV and news trailers to webinar production and live streaming we have it all. No other form of communication can get information and emotion across as quickly or as clearly. Our skilled team brings new life to your corporate communication and give professional business communication the perfect audio-visual twist.
